Funerals

Wall of remembrance event!

For the past few years we have been holding very successful balloon releases to remember our loved ones. However, there has recently been a lot of press coverage concerning the dangers that even bio-degradable balloons can cause to wildlife when they are released. So we decided it was time to make a change and consider our impact on the environment. So this year we are going to make a wall of remembrance.

On the day - we will provide you with a white cardboard box which you can decorate however you wish. We will supply basic materials such as marker pens, glue, sissors etc. You can bring photos or any other type of memorabilia to personalise your box. We will then construct our wall with all the individual boxes. We hope that you like this new idea which we think is a great compromise! You can then take the box home to keep.
